

Press Release

For immediate release

Screening clinics in Laval now by appointment

Information for the public

Laval, November 18, 2020 – The Centre intégré de santé et de services sociaux (CISSS) de Laval is asking Laval residents to make an appointment before going to a designated COVID-19 testing clinic.

With winter coming soon, this change will help people avoid long line-ups in the cold. The CISSS de Laval is also asking people to respect their appointment time by showing up no more than 5 minutes in advance.

Number to call for an appointment: 1 877 644-4545 (Laval residents and workers).

Please note that clinic hours remain the same.

For up-to-date information on screening clinics, go to the CISSS de Laval website at <http://www.lavalensante.com/en/covid19/screening-and-assessment/>

For information on COVID-19, visit the special section dedicated to COVID-19 on the Québec government website (Quebec.ca).

For additional information, follow the CISSS de Laval on Twitter @cissslaval

About the CISSS de Laval

The CISSS de Laval is fully dedicated to learning, innovating and excelling in order to offer residents of Laval and surrounding areas a full range of integrated, quality health and social services accessible to all. Its human capital includes over 10,000 employees and doctors working in 32 facilities, including the Hôpital de la Cité- de-la-Santé, the Jewish Rehabilitation Hospital, the Centre de services ambulatoires de Laval, six CLSCs, five residential centres, the Centre de protection de l'enfance et de la jeunesse de Laval, the Centre de réadaptation en dépendance de Laval and the Centre de réadaptation en déficience intellectuelle et troubles envahissants du développement de Laval. The CISSS de Laval is a research and teaching facility affiliated to Université de Montréal and McGill University. For more information about the CISSS de Laval and the services offered in its facilities, go to www.lavalensante.com.

Information Directorate of Human Resources, Communications and Legal Affairs
Centre intégré de santé et de services sociaux de Laval
Media line: 450 978-8608 communications.cissslaval@ssss.gouv.qc.ca